

CHARTS ARE AT FAULT

Commander Richard Wainright on the Stand Testified That They Were Inaccurate.

Lieut. Commander Hodgson, Capt. Folger and Lieut. Dwyer Made Additions to Their Testimony.

Lieut. M. L. Bristol, Who as Ensign Was a Watch and Division Officer on the Texas, on the Stand.

Washington, Oct. 3.—An interesting case was given to the Schley court of inquiry Wednesday by the introduction of the first witness in Admiral Schley's behalf. This was Lieut. Jas. J. Doyle, who was watch officer on board the flagship Brooklyn during the war with Spain. The fact that Lieut. Doyle was put on the stand does not mean that the navy department has concluded the presentation of its side of the case. Mr. Doyle was called by the department, but as it has been the purpose of Admiral Schley to summon him, advantage was taken of his presence on the stand to question him as an original witness for "the applicant."

Undergoing examination at Mr. Hayner's house, Lieut. Doyle, at Capt. Doyle's request, explained his part in the battle of July 3, and his original entry in the ship's log concerning the famous battle and his recollection of the enemy's behavior as he was taken to the charge in the log was not due to an error on the part of the witness and to no desire upon the part of the applicant to falsify the log.

"Absolutely," was the response. "And the error," continued Mr. Hayner, "occurred, as I understood you to say, in this way: That during the action you could not see on account of the smoke and thought the ship did turn with starboard helm and you entered it as in the log."

"Yes," was the reply. "We just track of the enemy in the first instance with the port battery by our own bow sighting the enemy out and showing that at that time we were not in the line of battle."

"And then when you learned you had been mistaken you made the change?"

"I changed the entry, and I think if you had the rough copy here you would find it changed in my own handwriting."

Admiral Schley, Capt. Sigbee and other witnesses were all recalled for the purpose of correcting their testimony as given Tuesday, and all made additional statements.

Washington, Oct. 4.—After Lieut. Doyle, formerly of the Brooklyn, had completed his testimony before the Schley court of inquiry Wednesday, Capt. William T. Dwyer, of the mine corps, was called, and was followed by Lieut. Charles W. Dwyer, of the bureau of steam engineering of the navy department.

Capt. Dwyer was signal officer on board the battleship Louisiana during the battle of July 3, and he gave an account from the behavior of the various ships of the American fleet during that battle. He said the Brooklyn had gone about 2,000 yards to the southwest before joining in the pursuit of Cervera's ships.

Capt. Sigbee resumed the stand in the morning to correct his testimony of Wednesday. He said he found a letter Wednesday night written May 19, in which he said he had no personal knowledge of the whereabouts of the Spaniards.

and Santiago until we receive more positive information."

During the examination of Commander Raymond P. Rodgers, this dispatch was under consideration when Mr. Hayner expressed the opinion that the word Santiago had been inadvertently used by the commander-in-chief, assuming that he meant to use the word Cienfuegos, as better corresponding with the text.

As the document was printed there was a punctuation mark, to which Admiral Schley's initials were attached, saying that evidently the wrong city had been mentioned.

Mr. Hayner asked Judge Advocate Leamy to make this correction, but the latter declined to do so, saying that he could produce the original of Admiral Sampson's dispatch to prove that he had said Santiago. Then Mr. Hayner said: "I can not take that word Santiago to mean anything but Cienfuegos."

Washington, Oct. 5.—The navy department has concluded that the log of the Brooklyn, which was the subject of the inquiry, was not a falsified log, but that the error in the log was due to a misunderstanding of the log by the witness.

The witnesses for the day were Lieut. Doyle, Capt. Sigbee, and other witnesses were all recalled for the purpose of correcting their testimony as given Tuesday, and all made additional statements.

"She had seven boilers, five main and two auxiliary. The two forward were not in use, the fire under three even bunked and three others were dead."

"I judge from the fact that it took from 9:35 to 10 to get up steam that the fires were not even primed."

"The ship was designed to have the engines coupled up in time of war. It was, however, necessary to have the ship at a dead standstill, and it could consume 15 or 20 minutes to couple them up."

"Coupled up the Brooklyn could make 15 or 18 knots. During the fight she had only five out of the seven boilers in use."

"She made all this necessary speed, however, on July 3, on the other hand, she did not get up all the speed she could, making only 14 knots, and not 20, which she made on her trial trip."

"The New York could not get up to 16 to 17 knots an hour. The speed of the Oregon was 18, and the Texas 19 knots. The Iowa is not mentioned, as she had one boiler empty, and only got up to 9, knots."

Mr. Adm. Sigsbee testified. Washington, Oct. 5.—Mr. Adm. Sigsbee ended his active career in the navy Tuesday, as Wednesday he went on the retired list by operation of law on account of age. His retirement will have no effect whatever upon the court of inquiry.

Galveston, Tex., Oct. 9.—Galveston was deluged by the heaviest rainfall in its history Tuesday. POWERS TRIAL STARTS.

Judge Pennington Refused to Vouch for the Health and Would Not Allow Postponement.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 9.—"I certainly shall not vouch for the health of the defendant," Judge Pennington said Tuesday morning after he had carefully read an affidavit filed by the defense in the Powers case to compel him to leave the bench upon the grounds of his alleged physical and mental feebleness and his inability to perform his duties.

The affidavit was produced in court Tuesday morning, and the judge read it slowly, and he did not seem to be moved by it. He made no comment, and showed no feeling when he turned the bench upon the grounds of his alleged physical and mental feebleness and his inability to perform his duties.

The judge, when he overruled the motion, and the affidavit should have been filed before he took any action in the case, if at all, and that it was not a proper time to file it.

After a few minutes spent in calling to prospective jurors, the motion of the defense was overruled, and the case did not stand for trial at this time because the affidavit of the defendant's health was not filed.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The post office department has requested Postmaster C. C. Clegg, at Somerset, Ky., to make good a loss of $100 of revenue due to the failure to exact the proper classification rate from a public carrier. The publisher recently informed if he could pay certain printing on the wrapper of his publication and will obtain publisher's postage rates. The postmaster authorized this action, although it was not under the law. The publisher refused to pay the back postage of the higher rate when the irregularity was pointed out to the post office department, and now the postmaster is required to pay the amount due as a penalty for failure to properly classify the publication.

Peter Stirling Was the Kentucky Futurity, $10,000, Beating Walter and Hall Hail a Length.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—The three events usually meeting of the Kentucky Trotting association were won in straight heats, though each was hard fought to the wire. Peter Stirling was forced to do his best in each heat. Hawthorne succeeded to second place in the third, when Walter Hall broke in the stretch and making the clip home furiously. The starts were exceptionally good, and at all stages the contest was beautiful, the leaders being abreast much of the time.

Dan Patch was favorite in the Tennessee, and was never in danger, though Shadow Chimes pressed him at the wire. Confessure and Waubesa pushed Captor three heats in 2:09. Confessure finishing short a nose in the second and a head in the third heat. Waubesa was a strong tip till the finish of the last heat, and much money was placed accordingly. Announcements.

CONGRESS.
The friends of Rowland C. Burns beg to announce that he is a candidate for Congress in this district in 1902, subject to the action of the Republican party. He believes that a unionist man is as good as any one.

Vote for Peters for Assessor.

Vote for Jesse Cordle for Sheriff.

Cast your ballot for Al Hays for Jailor.

Highberger for Surveyor. He will do the work right.

Vote for Ralph Holbrook for Superintendent of Schools. He is sober and trustworthy.

Pritchard and Byrne are the candidates for whom you should cast your votes for Senate and Legislature.

G. E. Fugitt has a laudable ambition to be County Attorney. He has made the best of his low opportunities and has struggled hard to rise in the world.

Add Skeens not only needs the office of County Clerk, but is well qualified to fill it. The records of a county are its most important property and the people should be sure they are putting the office in competent hands.

Schley the grand old warrior who so effectively smashed the Spanish fleet at Santiago, is showing his omens for a few things now. He is having his inning with the court of inquiry. His famous "loop" may have been a little risky, but it worked out admirably.

A County Judge who is familiar with the records of the county, and with the systems used in all departments can render much greater service to the people than one who knows nothing of those things. R. F. Vinson has been closely identified with these affairs for over thirty years. He is also a lawyer and is thoroughly competent to take hold of the county's affairs with a firm hand and begin at once the best administration of the duties of the office.

The British army makes no headway in South Africa and the popular outcry in England becomes greater. The recall of Lord Roberts is practically demanded, and the War Office comes in for more censure by the appointment of Sir Redvers Buller to command an army corps. The cost of the war in men killed, wounded or dead of disease, but not including those invalided home, is $7,212. The exchequer shows a deficit for the year of $160,000,000. Effective occupation by the British in South Africa is about one-third what it was a year ago.

Well Preserved

Women often astonish new acquaintances, who are introduced to a large family of strong boys and healthy girls, who call this young looking woman mother. It is popularly supposed that maternity is the foe of beauty, and the worn and faded face of many a mother seems to warrant the belief. But it is hard to believe that nature should compel a woman to sacrifice the right of beauty in order to carry out a natural function of her body.

And nature does not. The pains and sufferings incident to motherhood, to a large extent, unnatural. This is proved by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which prevents and cures nausea, tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, induces refreshing sleep, and makes the baby's advent practically painless.

Mrs. Cora Stiles, of Downing, Dunn Co., Wis., writes: "I have been intending to write to you ever since my baby was born in regard to what your Favorite Prescription has done for me. I cannot praise it enough. I have not been as well for five years as I am now. In July last I had a baby, weighing 10 lbs., and was only sick a short time and since I got up have not had one sick day. I have not had any sleep trouble since I got up. I was not only surprised myself but all my friends here are surprised to see me so well."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the complexion and sweeten the breath.

Just Across the River

In West Virginia.

John Selber has been appointed postmaster at Hubbardstown, W. Va.

Capl. T. J. Campbell, one of the oldest river men on the Ohio, dropped dead at Huntington Monday.

The marriage of Dr. Lindsey Vinson and Miss Willie Mae Helderly of Huntington, is announced for November 2nd.

G. W. Copley, Allen Pritchard and Claude Pymale, of Wayne, have enlisted in the regular army and have gone to their post of duty in Rhode Island.

Chas. O. Beach has resigned his position as foreman of the Corodo Advance to accept a clerkship in the office of the train dispatcher of the N. & W. at Kenosha.

Mrs. Mary Hughes and her two daughters left here Wednesday to attend the thirtieth anniversary of the marriage of her parents. Rev. and Mrs. John T. Johnson, of Hound Bolton, Wayne News.

John Gayhart, colored, who murdered Alex. Millous, also colored, on the Ohio river bank at Corodo last summer by almost severing his head from the body with a huge knife, was convicted of murder in the first degree by a jury at Wayne Thursday, but, as all evidence was purely circumstantial, mercy was recommended by the jury. Judge Doolittle sentenced him to the penitentiary for life.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 5.—Two electric cars on the Canadian Interstate Railway collided this morning in a heavy fog. Leonard Gilkerson, motorman, of this city, was probably fatally injured. Charles Wade, motorman, of Guyandotte, dangerously injured. Others injured are: Will Jordan, conductor, Guyandotte; J. O. Wilgus, Precinctory, O.; Miss Rosa Williams, Portsmouth, O.; M. N. Vanhorn, Irvin Smith, Jr., Charles Nash, J. C. Boland, all of Huntington.

James Birchfield, a young man living in the west end of Huntington, was handling a revolver Wednesday evening, when it was accidentally discharged, so it is said, and the bullet entered his right cheek and ranged downward to a point near the throat, inflicting what it is feared will result in a fatal injury. The doctors are at a loss to know how the gun was discharged accidentally, could the bullet enter near the jaw and range downward.

The shooting occurred at the home of Wm. Chinn.

A negro on board a crowded westbound Norfolk and Western train last Saturday night near Keystone, insultingly demanded of P. C. Goodall, a Long Branch Coal Company clerk, that he give him his seat. The clerk refusing, the negro jerked out a razor and cut an ugly gash across his forehead. Goodall quickly reached for a poker and knocked his assailant down. As he started to rise he shoved him out of the coach door and off the train, which was moving at a high rate of speed. As the train did not stop nothing is known of the negro's condition.—Wayne News.

DeYoua offer from pills? If so do not turn to surgery for relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will get more quickly, surely and safely saving you the expense and danger of an operation.

COURT DAY SALES.

Arrangements Made for Sales of Live Stock at Louisa.

EVERY COUNTY COURT DAY.

A few of the citizens of Louisa have taken the trouble to arrange for sales of live stock to take place here on County Court day (the third Monday) in each month. It is intended to be a permanent enterprise, conducted for the benefit of the sellers and buyers of the entire surrounding country. It is not a money making scheme, but is simply a public spirited move which it is hoped will benefit the masses of this and surrounding counties.

The plan is to bring buyers and sellers together here on those days and have sales made either privately or by auction, as the owner in each instance may prefer. Persons having any kind of live stock for sale are requested to bring it here on County Court day.

The BIG SANDY NEWS has agreed until further notice, to insert free of charge, advertisements of stock to be offered for sale each month. Parties intending to have stock here should send us description of it as early as possible, giving date at which it will be offered for sale. This will insure the presence of persons desiring such stock.

Let everybody help this enterprise along.

The following stock will be among that offered for sale at Louisa on the next county court day—the third Monday in the month:

I bay colt will be 2 years old next spring, fine galter.

I span mules, brown color, 15 hands high, weight about 1000 lbs each, 6 years old, good workers.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.
How to Find Out.
Fill a bottle or commode glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or floating indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects acidity to hold water and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c and $1.00 sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right. All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness.

Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment. Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.

Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 625 Pearl St., N. Y. City and from all druggists.

A Friend.

When suffering from a racing cough, take Foley's Kidney and Tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Liza Burgess was born at Shilo, O., in 1821. She was married to Gordon Burgess in 1840. 11 children were born to this union of whom preceded her to the unknown eternally. She died Sept. 20, 1901. She was in all respects one of the very best women in Lawrence county, and as all know who were acquainted with her, a very religious soul. Your scribble became acquainted with her some two years ago, and knew nothing but to love her. And I believe she did not have an enemy on earth. She was taken with complicated diseases about three weeks before her death, and she bore the pain with much christian fortitude until God said, "You have suffered enough, you have borne the heat and burden of the day, and have stayed in the lower misty land long enough," and her spirit leaped from the old tenement of clay into the region of light and glory to bask in the light of that blessed world. God help her children to follow in her foot-prints that she has left in the sands of time.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.
The folks keep after me, they do, to write to the BIG SASSY NEWS, and now I am going to scribble something. It doesn't much matter what, perhaps you think so do I. So with a small amount of time, I will try and give you a few facts about East Liverpool. Besides the 23,000 rednecks and educated people within the corporation, she possesses scenes which would humanize her if every soul were taken away and not one left to tell of departed glory and goodness.

A stroll to Thompson's Park at an early morning hour is more invigorating than many bottles of "Kentucky's best." This park stands many feet above the city, and is covered with flowers, grass and trees. It is the prettiest site of all the country round. It is a resting place, play-ground. Many tired souls have been made glad by spending the time on the grass and listening to the varied music around you. The Ohio river winds around you like a bright colored serpent and a forest of shade trees lie at your feet and in this hidden town which is a great big residence, wherein schools and churches and culture reign supreme, giving it all the grace of a well regulated house.

Happiness is above high water mark. Good humor and contentment are noted features. There is no unusual rush for financial increase, except as it develops the home-like interest of the town.

The citizens have good schools, and four well organized colleges are their works, and they are caring for the schools with a pride not usually seen.

Hundreds of pupils are educated here yearly. I like their schools with an exception—I am not in favor of negro equality. It does not suit a Kentuckian to see the pallor, fainting, smothering or sinking spells all point in the same direction—an impaired heart action. A heart that is weak or diseased cannot do full duty and the circulation of the blood is interfered with. There is a medicine that gives new strength to the heart, new power to the pulse and puts new color into cheek and lip.

"My pulse would jump and beat at a fearful rate and then drop almost to a stopping point. I could not rest at night, feet swelled and had severe pains in chest. Took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure six weeks and was cured."

T. H. Jones, Pittsburg, Texas.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure regulates the heart's action, while it stimulates the digestive organs to make new, rich, red blood which gives strength to the whole body. Sold by druggists on a guarantee.

Besides the 23,000 rednecks and educated people within the corporation, she possesses scenes which would humanize her if every soul were taken away and not one left to tell of departed glory and goodness.

A stroll to Thompson's Park at an early morning hour is more invigorating than many bottles of "Kentucky's best." This park stands many feet above the city, and is covered with flowers, grass and trees. It is the prettiest site of all the country round. It is a resting place, play-ground. Many tired souls have been made glad by spending the time on the grass and listening to the varied music around you. The Ohio river winds around you like a bright colored serpent and a forest of shade trees lie at your feet and in this hidden town which is a great big residence, wherein schools and churches and culture reign supreme, giving it all the grace of a well regulated house.

Happiness is above high water mark. Good humor and contentment are noted features. There is no unusual rush for financial increase, except as it develops the home-like interest of the town.

The citizens have good schools, and four well organized colleges are their works, and they are caring for the schools with a pride not usually seen.

Well Preserved.

Women often admire new acquaintances, who are introduced to a large family of strong boys and healthy girls, who call this young looking woman mother. It is popularly supposed that maternity is the foe of beauty, and the worn and faded face of many a mother seems to have been the result of the belief. But it is nature that nature should compel a woman to sacrifice the right of her beauty in order to carry out a natural function of her being. And nature does not. The pains and sufferings incident to motherhood, to a large extent, unnatural. This is proved by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which prevents and cures the ailments, transpires the nerves, encourages the appetite, induces refreshing sleep, and makes the baby's advent practically painless.
